

DUNCASTER TO HOST MEET THE CANDIDATES NIGHT OCT. 22

All 12 Candidates for Town Council to Participate

BLOOMFIELD, CT, Oct. 19, 2009 – The twelve candidates for Bloomfield's Town Council will meet to discuss the issues on Thursday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at Duncaster Retirement Community.

The discussion, which will be moderated by Duncaster resident Katie Reynolds, will allow representatives of each party to discuss their stance on key questions affecting the town. These issues will include: budget and taxes, economic development, education, open space and leisure services, senior services and public safety.

The candidates will include: Robert Berman, Republican; Jonathan Colman, Democrat; Joan Gamble, Democrat; Donald Harris Jr., Democrat; Mark Jacobs, Republican; Joseph Merritt, Republican; Larry Pleasant, Democrat; Leon Rivers, Democrat; Lorne Rozovosky, Republican; John Sheehan, Republican; Sydney Shulman, Democrat and Douglas Sullivan, independent.

Candidates for Bloomfield's Board of Education will also attend to meet Duncaster residents, but will not address the crowd.

The event is one of many Duncaster-sponsored activities to support and participate in the town of Bloomfield.
