

DUNCASTER RECOGNIZES TWO EMPLOYEES FOR LOVING SERVICE

Bloomfield, CT, June 17, 2008 –The Duncaster Lifecare Community recently recognized two employees for excellent service with the Eighth Annual Peggy and David Hubbard Award. Founded by the children of the Hubbards, longtime residents of Duncaster, the award honors two staff members, one working in a clinical capacity and the other non-clinical. Selections are made based on nominations from residents and colleagues in recognition of outstanding qualities of kindness, thoughtfulness, and consideration of others.

This year's recipients are Eleanor Paullis of Bloomfield and Rose Sweeney of Hartford.

A Certified Nursing Assistant at Duncaster's Caleb Hitchcock Health Center for the past four years. Ms. Paullis was recognized for her generous spirit and acts of kindness with residents.

Ms. Sweeney works as an Assistant Supervisor of Dietary Aides in the Food Services Department at Caleb Hitchcock and has nearly four years of service. She was nominated for her selfless and high standards of service.
