

THIRD GRADERS MEET THEIR DUNCASTER PEN PALS FOR THE FIRST TIME

60 third-graders from the J.P. Vincent School filled the halls of Duncaster Lifecare Community recently on their annual outing to meet their Duncaster Pen Pals. Since February, they have been corresponding with 30 residents of Duncaster and this was the first time they were able to meet their Pen Pals face-to-face. The program was started over 20 years ago by Duncaster residents who wanted to help the children hone their communication skills and make new friends in the process.

Seen here are Duncaster resident and Pen Pal Antoinette Mason with two children from the J.P. Vincent School.

About Duncaster

Duncaster is Bloomfield's signature life care retirement community. This campus includes 190 independent residences, assisted living and the Caleb Hitchcock Health Center that is designed to provide a lifestyle of security and fulfillment. Aquatic and fitness center activities, ongoing education and a myriad of social and cultural programs energize and enrich residents' lives. For more information, see www.duncaster.org or call (860) 380-5005.
